John, who is the reigning CHL Track Runner of the Year, was named first-team all-city in Div. II by the Enquirer, and has been all-Ohio three times. He owns five school track records and was a finalist for Cincinnati Track Athlete of the Year by the Cincinnati High School Sports Awards.

A basketball point guard, John, a four-year letter winner, this past season averaged about six points per game and was a 73% free-throw shooter. His 4.5 assists per game ranked second in the CHL. He was second-team all CHL and was invited to play in the Ohio District 16 high school all-star games.

A football quarterback and defensive back, John overcame injuries to lead Indian Hill to a 9-3 record and the 2023 CHL championship, part of the team that snapped the Wyoming Cowboys state-record, regular-season 75-game winning streak. On the season, he passed for 763 yards and eight touchdowns while rushing for 86 yards and two TDs. He was honorable mention all-CHL.
