

Addie Robillard

Sycamore High School

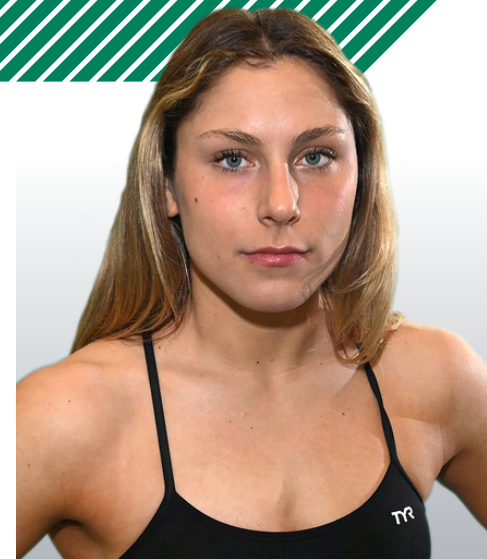

Sycamore senior Addie Robillard is a swimming All-American who won three Ohio state titles while swimming for St. Ursula Academy and two state titles this season with Sycamore. She has committed to swim next year at Stanford University. Now swimming for Sycamore and a competitor at the Olympic Trials, Addie, who won back-to-back GGCL Swimmer of the Year honors as a sophomore and a junior, attended St. Ursula for three years, winning the 100-yard breaststroke state title as a freshman and sophomore and the 200-yard individual medley her sophomore year.

At this year's Southwest Ohio Coaches Classic, Addie swimming for Sycamore had one of her best meets of the season, winning all four of her individual events while setting two meet records. She has won numerous GGCL, sectional and district championships and holds numerous records. She was named this season's GMC Swimmer of the Year, Cincinnati Swimmer of the Year (Enquirer) and was a finalist for the Cincinnati Sports Awards' Swimmer of the Year. At this year's Ohio state championships, she won the 200 IM in 2:00.70 and the 100 breaststroke in 1:00.82.

Addie also swims for the Mason Manta Rays club team and is a member of the USA Swimming's National Junior Team. In December, she won the 200 breaststroke at the Speedo Winter Junior Championships in Greensboro, North Carolina, and finished third in the 100 breaststroke. She also won the 200 breaststroke at the Junior Pan Pacific Championships last August in Canberra, Australia.

An academic All-American (4.25 GPA) who is active in community service, Addie ran cross country as a freshman. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, puzzling and dog sitting. When she was a youngster, she watched her younger brother go through bone marrow transplant treatments and it has driven her to pursue a career in medicine. Her favorite athlete is Simone Manual, favorite entertainer is Britney Spears, favorite book is Frankenstein, favorite movie is Dazed and Confused and most-like-to-meet is Amanda Beard.

NAME: Addie Robillard
GRADUATING YEAR: 2025
SCHOOL: Sycamore High School
SPORT: Swimming
HEIGHT: 5'8"
PARENTS: Matt & Amy
INFLUENCE: "My parents."
GOAL: Make 2028 USA Olympic team

"Addie has been a tremendous teammate. She is actively engaged with her teammates and with respect to her talent, shows amazing humility at all times."

- Daniel Carl, Varsity Swimming Coach

May 20, 2025