

Ella Teubner

Lebanon High School

One of the area's best softball players is Lebanon senior catcher Ella Teubner, who will be playing next season at the University of Iowa. She helped her team to an ECC co-championship and district title this season. She is leading the league in hitting (.614 average) and RBI (61). She was named as this season's ECC Offensive Player of the Year.

Success started early for Ella. As a freshman, she took the league by storm. She was named the ECC Offensive Player of the Year after leading the league in batting average (.628), on-base percentage (.657), total hits (59), and RBI (57). She also ranked Top 5 in doubles (17), triples (4), and home runs (7).

Last season, as a junior, Ella ranked fourth in the conference in batting with a .532 average, plus she led the conference in RBIs with 46 and home runs with nine. She hit 12 doubles and scored 22 runs. She was named first-team all-ECC, Cincinnati Enquirer Div. I Player of the Year, first-team all-SWO District, and first-team all-Ohio by the Ohio softball coaches. She helped lead Lebanon to a 15-2 conference record, 21-5 overall.

A good student who is active in community service, her summer team is the Ohio Hawks 18U Joseforsky. Her favorite entertainer is Disturbed, favorite books are the Percy Jackson series, favorite movie is Ferris Buehler's Day Off, and most-like-to-meet is President Trump.
